Dear Parents and Caregivers,

12 April, 2017

We are in the middle of our Holy Week celebrations.

On Monday, Rooms 1 & 2 led us in our Palm Sunday Liturgy.

Yesterday, Rooms 3 & 4 led the Holy Thursday Liturgy, telling the story of the Last Supper, the washing of feet and the Garden of Gethsemene.

Today, Room 6 lead us in the Good Friday Liturgy of the Crucifixion. Tomorrow at 2.30 pm Room 5 will finish our Easter story with the Resurrection Liturgy.

Thank you to everyone who has come to share our Holy Week and Easter Celebrations with us.

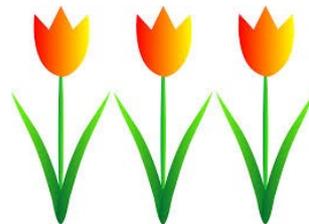

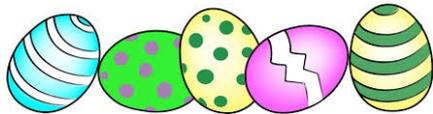

The Easter timetable at St Bernadette's Church is:

Holy Thursday	7pm
Good Friday	3pm
Easter Vigil	7pm (Saturday)
Easter Sunday	10am

Tomorrow is the last day of Term 1. We wish everyone a Happy Easter and a safe and happy holiday. We look forward to seeing you all in Term 2.

Term 2 begins on Monday the 1st of May

Dairy Farm Visits in Term 2

Near the beginning of Term 2 we are going on a couple of big trips to visit Dairy Farms in the Wairarapa and see where our milk comes from. Years 1 - 4 will be going to a farm near Featherston on Friday 12th May. Years 5 - 8 will be going to a farm near Martinborough on Friday 19th May. We thought you might like some advanced warning to think about whether you would like to join us as adult helpers on these learning adventures.

Thank you for the great support you showed to your child and their learning if you participated in the first day of learning conferences. If yours is still to come I hope your appointment is made because they are happening tomorrow. School finishes at the usual time of 3pm.
