Term 2 nearly done

Since Term 1 never really finished we are a bit confused about this term and we are looking forward to a real holiday and starting fresh in Term 3. Even though we were determined not to put pressure on people by worrying about what has been missed and focusing on catching up, we are now ready to look at things that we don't want to miss in 2020. Here are a few things for you to think about as we look towards Term 3.

The Sacramental Programme

Normally we would have had Confirmation preparation and celebration in Term 2.

We have come up with a new plan of having Confirmation and First Communion celebrated together at the end of Term 3.

There will be preparation parent and student meetings for Confirmation early in Term 3 and then we will follow that with preparation for First Communion.

Reading Together

Another thing that usually happens in Term 2 but we don't want to miss it, so this year Reading Together will be in Term 3. Invitations have gone out to parents of Year 1 students who haven't previously done it, but everyone is welcome to join in.

This is a great programme to help you help your child with reading at home.

Keep an eye out for more information on the 4 sessions that you need to complete this programme of valuable learning.

Year 4 - 8 Learning Conferences

We will have Learning Conferences in the second week back, next term. Booking sheets will come out in next week's newsletter, which will give you time to think ahead and make a plan.

Duffy 'Caught Being Good' Awards

Congratulations to these children who were 'Caught Being Good' last week:

Room 1 - Thian Pi and Eljaye Fata-Meafou

Room 2 - Alin Pelasio and Zion Nyuon

Room 4 - Tauinaola Tauailoto and Jasmine Paio

Room 5 - Dane Noble-Harris and Grace Nansen

Room 6 - FaivaLua Foua and Chazaya Filipino

Well done and enjoy the book you have chosen!

Cross Country

Students from Room 3 and upwards are training most days for cross country. The finals will be on Friday the 3rd of July, last day of Term 2, time to be confirmed next week.

You are most welcome to come along and cheer them on.
